

The 9th Annual
2010 Gulf Coast Fly-In

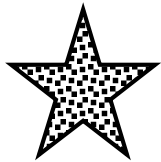

Wednesday April 28, 2010
9:00 am – 4:30 pm

At the Calcasieu Parish Mosquito Control hangar
Chennault Field, Lake Charles, LA

A workshop for all those interested and involved in the aerial control of mosquitoes.

FREE for all attendees, to include a catered lunch and meeting supplies.

Workshop highlights:

The Air Force C-130 used for post-hurricane mosquito spraying operations will be on display (weather permitting). The crew will be available for demonstrations.

A 'SHOW & TELL' highlighting numerous mosquito control planes and a variety of spray systems.

Equipment and control products will be displayed by a variety of industry vendors

Educational presentations

Topics to include:

- Starting an aerial mosquito control program
- Accident investigations
- Optimal flight paths
- Latest research on droplet size and drift
- Flight safety & Aircraft maintenance
- New product & Equipment updates

And more.....

Please RSVP with Tom Janousek (402) 561-9260: tjmosq@msn.com or Calcasieu Parish Mosquito Control (337) 721-3780

